Dear Mr. Hayes:

It looks like our letters will continue to cross each other, but I guess we will get to understand what we are trying to get over anyway. From your most recent letter I take it you had the same thought we had, trying to arrange a game for the 27th some where nearer to Florida. I hope you will be successful.

Now about Louisville on our way north, I think it would be fine if we could get in there that Monday or Tuesday. What day had you planned? We could then leave there and stop in Richmond and maybe Norfolk.

Now that I have heard from you, and know you are planning to keep us certain dates, I will not be so uneasy about not hearing from you.

All the men I was expecting arrived from Puerto Rico yesterday, but I have not signed any of them yet. However I expect I will be able to keep them.

Very Truly Yours
